

Checklist for ACM Senior Member/Distinguished Member Nominations

The online nominations process for ACM Senior Member/Distinguished Member Nominations allows for a nomination to be saved and completed at a later point.

The following list provides a checklist for the information a nominator should provide in order to complete the nomination.

Required information is indicated by (*).

Candidate Information:

(*)Name

()Email, ()Phone, Fax

(*)Complete business mailing address

(*)Complete home mailing address

(*)ACM Member Number - or - ACM username

(*)Accomplishments

Summary of the major accomplishments of the candidate (4,000 characters maximum).

(*)Education

Name and location of educational institution, major, degree, and year of program completion. Order most recent first.

Explanation of Education

Nominator can explain specific aspects of the candidate's education.

(*)Professional Experience

Name of organization, position held, start- and end-year. Order most recent first.

(*)Summary of Professional Experience (Applies to Senior Member only)

Summarize candidate's professional experience (1,500 characters maximum).

(*)Technical Area

Candidate's technical areas of concentration. Choose all that apply:

Artificial Intelligence

Biotech

Computation

Computer Architecture

Databases

Design Automation

Education

Embedded Systems

Graphics

Human Computer Interaction

IT

Knowledge Management

Mobile Computing

Modeling

Multimedia
Networking
Operating Systems
Programming Languages
Security
Software Engineering
Spatial Information
Virtual Reality
Web
Wireless Systems
For Distinguished Member only:
(*Summary of Accomplishments (150 characters or less))

Nominators will be contacted after completing the nomination process, with information on how to proceed. This information will include an encrypted url which you will forward to your endorsers and which will enable them to access the endorsement site.